Waiver

1. Contents of online offering The author does not accept any responsibility whatsoever for the current nature, accuracy, completeness or quality of the information provided on this website. Any liability claims against the author of a material or ideal kind which are caused by the use or non-use of the information provided are excluded, in so far as the author cannot be proven guilty of intent or gross negligence. All offers are made without obligation. The author expressly retains the right to change, add to or delete parts of the website or the complete offering without the need for special announcement or to cease publication on a temporary or permanent basis.

2. References and links The author shall only be liable for damages arising from direct or indirect reference to links on other websites which lie outside the area of responsibility of the author if the author is aware of the content of such links and it would be technically possible and reasonable for him to prevent use of the links if the content were illegal. The author herewith expressly states that at the time when the links were created, the corresponding linked sites were free of illegal content. The author has no influence whatsoever on the current and future design, contents or copyright of any linked/connected websites which were changed following creation of the links. This provision applies for all links and references created within our own website and Internet offering and for third-party entries into visitors' books, discussion forums and mailing lists installed by the author. The party responsible for offering the website to which reference is made is alone responsible for illegal, inaccurate or incomplete content and particularly for damages which arise from the use or non-use of information offered in such a way. The party whose sole activity is to refer to the respective publication by means of links shall not be responsible or liable in any manner whatsoever.

3. Copyright and Trademark Law The author makes every effort to respect the copyright of the graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts in all his publications, and to use graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts produced by himself, or to make use of graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts which are not subject to licence. All brands and trademarks named in the website and which may be protected by third parties are subject without restriction to the provisions of the respective valid trademark law and the rights of ownership of the respective official legal owner. Simple naming does not imply that trademarks are not protected by third-party rights! Copyright for published objects created by the author himself shall remain the sole property of the website author. Duplication or use of such graphics, sound documents, video sequences and texts in other electronic or printed publications requires the prior express permission of the author.

4. Data protection If it is possible to enter personal or business information of the user within this Internet offering (e-mail addresses, names, and addresses), such information is expressly revealed by the user on a voluntary basis. Use of and payment for all services which are offered is - in so far as technically possible and reasonable - also possible without the entry of such data or is possible with the use of data which has been rendered anonymous or with the use of a pseudonym.

5. Legal effectiveness of waiver This waiver constitutes an integral part of the Internet offering where reference to this page originates. If parts or individual formulations of this text do not, do not completely, or no longer correspond to the current legal provisions, the remaining parts of the document shall remain unaffected as regards their content and validity.
